Information for adults and referrers working with young victims of crime in Wiltshire & Swindon.

Splash forms part of Youth Action Wiltshire, the award-winning youth arm of Wiltshire Charity Community First (charity reg number 288117).

Splash has been providing positive activities and youth support work for over 30 years. Working in partnership with Wiltshire Police, the Horizon team, Relate, Wiltshire Mind and The Family Counselling Trust we provide the following for young victims of crime in Wiltshire and Swindon:

- Dedicated expert Youth Support Workers with out of hours support available
- Individualised support plans created with each young person
- Free to access positive activities and training programmes for young victims and witnesses of crime
- 1:1 individualised support sessions to work on specific areas of need
- Individual and family counselling for young victims of crime through our partners Relate, Wiltshire Mind and The Family Counselling Trust
- Support to access Restorative Justice where appropriate
- Training opportunities for young people to become Peer Mentors, Young Leaders or Young Listeners help other young victims of crime in Wiltshire and Swindon
- Opportunities to join our Wiltshire Young Victims of Crime Voice Groups; giving a collective voice to young victims to feedback on their experiences of the criminal justice system
